Other-

- The NRLHF will not furnish Black Powder for any event. Black Powder may, however, be donated. (12/13/2015)
- One Gate must be manned, especially during the posted regular gate hours. It is strongly suggested that gates be manned after regular gate hours (all night).
- Make signs for roads.

Foundation Staff Rules:

- No staff members will be paid for their services from event funds.
- Prior to or during a Foundation Rendezvous, non-compliance with Foundation Rendezvous Rules and Regulations, or Foundation Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, by any Foundation Rendezvous staff member may result in disciplinary action taken by the Board of Directors. Disciplinary actions may range from removal of the person from his/her position to permanent banishment of the person from all Foundation events. • All

Delegates and Business Office personnel shall be considered as "silent" staff at every Foundation event. (9/2013)

Foundation Rendezvous Requirements:

- At least three (3) bids must be attained for the large expense items. These items include, but are not limited to firewood, medallions, port-a-johns, water, ice, trash, camp feast, printing of flyers, printing of gate books. If problems arise, contact the Delegate in Charge of the event.
- An accounting of all income and expenses shall be submitted by the Boosway and the Clerk to the Foundation Treasurer, on the provided forms, within 30 days following the conclusion of the Rendezvous. Copies of all appropriate IRS acceptable receipts (marked with the event, year and Budget line number) must be attached to the final report forwarded to the Foundation Treasurer.

- A list of anyone pre-registered but who did not attend the Rendezvous must be turned in to the Business Office within 10 days of the published closing date of the Rendezvous.
- The balance of money will be turned in to the Foundation Treasurer within 30 days of the end of the published closing date of the Rendezvous.
- If after 60 days, no paperwork is turned in, or no satisfactory effort has been made to do so, the Foundation will collect all paperwork, money, and records for said Rendezvous and forward them to the Foundation Business Office and Foundation Treasurer.

Advertising Rules:

- Advertisement and/or pre-registration for two or more years of the same Rendezvous will not be permitted; only the year following the current Rendezvous will be allowed.
- All advertisements, fliers, and gate books must be submitted to the Business Office before being printed to ensure compliance with all Foundation standards.
- Advertisements will contain all dates, including early set-up and official opening and closing. If the Advertisement includes a pre-registration form, it must be the form provided by the Foundation Business Office, NO substitutions.
- Flyers will contain staff contacts, gate hours, visitor's information, emergency contacts, and a map.

Voting

- No site can be voted on unless it has been checked out and approved by a Delegate of the NRLHF Board or it is listed in the Business Office as a used site. No representatives. (9/2013)
 - A signed tentative land owner agreement is required prior to presenting the site for a vote. (9/2013)
 - Nominations for Delegates and sites/Booshways will be made the first Saturday, Sunday and Monday of each event at the camp meeting, with voting to take place Tuesday with an option of adding Wednesday if necessary by the delegate in charge and the Booshway. This rule does not apply to the Corps of Discovery event. (4/10/2014)
- Absentee Voting: An absentee ballot voting system will allow voting on a Delegate and a site by people who must leave camp before scheduled voting hours as long as three calls for nominations have been made. The sheet where medallion numbers are marked off will be available at the gate along with the ballots. Different colors will be used for absentee and regular voting. As campers leave camp, they will have their medallion number marked off the sheet and they may cast their ballots. In the event the same medallion number provided was used during regular voting hours, the votes will be thrown out by the people counting the votes. (10/1/2015)
- Each adult in good standing shall be entitled to one vote exercisable in person by showing their numbered medallion on each matter submitted to the camp meeting for a vote at each NRLHF sanctioned rendezvous.
- Voting ballots for site and delegate elections will be retained for one year after the event before being destroyed. Ballots will be kept in the Foundation Business Office. (12/2013)

Shooting Programs:

See Archery, Hawk & Knife and Rifle & Pistol Rules pages.

Soliciting for Funds:

At Foundation events, there will be no soliciting of funds or support for purposes contrary to those of the event, or the Foundation.

Trade Rules:

Each Rendezvous will have a Trade Captain and Committee. It will be the duty of the Trade Committee to complete a rendezvous compliance inspection of each trading participant. It will be their duty to periodically check the Trade Licenses for value compliance.

All vendors/traders must conform to all Federal, State, County, Township, and Foundation laws and rules. It is the responsibility of the vendor/trader to contact local departments of Fish and Game Commissions to assure compliance.

All Commercial and/or Blanket Traders selling goods at an NRLHF event are required to be licensed and pay the appropriate fees. Trader fees are to be paid with your event registration.

After setting up your business, or setting out your blanket a rendezvous compliance inspection will be done. The Trade License must be visible at all times during the event.

A license must be presented to the Delegate in Charge to redeem Booshway Bucks.

A license can be revoked anytime during the event, if the Trader violates any part of the Trade Rules and Regulations or the Rendezvous Rules.

A trader is any person(s) who sets up a trade shelter-lodge or sets out a trade blanket or hide with goods for sale, trade or barter.

Small Trade Blanket - One blanket or hide per license, and must not exceed 110" X 110 Blanket or hide must be of one piece construction. NO FEE is paid if total of goods for sale does not exceed $500.00

Large Trade Blanket - Two or more blankets or hides with items for sale. Trades goods with a value from $501.00 to $2,000.00. The Fee will be $20.00. (10/2/2014)

Commercial Trader - Anyone who offers goods for sale, trade, or barter with a total value over $2,000.00 is required to pay the current Trader fee of $50.00. (10/2/2014)

All Trade areas shall enrich the event atmosphere, and shall not use any type of plastic tarps.

The items in a Trade Shelter or on a Blanket must be original, hand-crafted or authentic reproductions or adaptations of trade goods common to North America and must be displayed in a manner similar to that common during the 1640 to 1840 time period.

Small primitive display racks may accompany a trade blanket, the display shall not be a nuisance or danger to the visitors or residents of the event, and the display must be approved by the Trade Committee.

All Trade goods (original, hand-crafted, and authentic reproductions or adaptations) shall conform to all federal, state, county, township, and NRLHF rules and regulations. For specific information, contact the proper authorities in the event area. This is your responsibility.

NO photocopies of copyrighted material shall be sold or displayed.

NO alcoholic beverage shall be sold, traded or bartered, OR in any way distributed for profit.

Animal parts or protected species that do not conform to the laws of the State the event held, and the Federal Government, shall not be sold, displayed, or possessed at the NRLHF event. For specific information contact the proper authorities in the event area. This is your responsibility.

Photographers are responsible for the legal processes involved in selling and/or publishing photos taken at NRLHF events. (12/2011)

TURQUOISE JEWELRY will not be considered an appropriate trade item unless the style and type can be documented as pre-1840. CASSETTES, CDS, VIDEO TAPES: These items are to be displayed in a period container or are to be covered at all times. A period sign may be displayed offering the for sale. Books, patterns, paintings etc. pertaining to the period, may be sold and must be displayed in a period manner.

■■ INCORRECT ITEMS: PLASTIC PACKAGING, STYROFOAM, And STICK ON PRICE TAGS SHOWING. SODA SOLD IN CANS, DREAM CATCHERS, BREECH LOADERS, CANDY IN PLASTIC PACKAGING, PVC POP GUNS, AND ANYTHING NOT CONSIDERED TO BE PRE-1840's. The burden of proof is on the Trader and NOT the Trade Committee.

PROCEDURES FOR REMOVAL OF NON-PERIOD TRADE ITEMS THEIR CONTAINERS, PACKAGING AND LABELLING.

1. The Trade Representative will notify and explain the nature of the problem and request compliance with the Trade Rules and Regulations and explain the consequences of non-compliance.
2. If the Trader disagrees with the Trade Representative, they will remove said item(s) and will contact the Trade Captain with their reasons for disagreement. All decisions of the Trade Captain are final.

3. If, after the above steps, the Trader is still in non-compliance and the Trader refuses to comply with the Trade Rules and Regulations, he/she/they will be asked to remove all Trade items for the duration of the event. If the Trader still refuses to comply the Booshway will be contacted for further actions and the Trader may be asked to leave the event.

TAXES: PROCUREMENT OF ALL FEDERAL, STATE, COUNTY AND TOWNSHIP BUSINESS LICENSE AND OR THE COLLECTION OF CONSUMER SALES TAX IN THE STATE WHERE THE EVENT IS HELD IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE TRADER.

*Any further questions should be directed to the event Trade Captain.

Propane Rules: (10/2003)

- If any State and/or Federal rules apply, they will be followed and it is the responsibility of the vendor to contact the appropriate agency for compliance.
- All propane systems, including pilot lights, must be completely shut down when not in use.
- It is required to have a fire extinguisher at all cooking stations.
- It is recommended that the Booshway contact a “Certified” propane company to conduct an inspection of all vendor’s propane systems prior their use at any of our events. Vendors will be responsible for any inspection fees.
- Food Vendors may make one trip into camp each day. The hours for this are at the discretion of the Booshway. (10/2011)

Foundation Event Property:

Procurement -

- Any lease or property use agreement will be made in the name of the Foundation whose chief agent is the Booshway elect. Such leases will conform to such procedures as the Board of Directors may require. Such leases must be sent to the Foundation Business Office to be presented to the proper committee for approval before signing.
- When practical, the Foundation event will secure both a primary and an alternate site with adequate space for camping and parking.

Inspection -

A Delegate will only look at potential sites if they have a prospective Booshway for the event.

(12/16/2014)

A Delegate will visit a prepared site, and expenses will be paid for by the event. If no money is available, the Foundation will pay the mileage for the inspection trip.

Lack of Event Sites or Personnel -

~~“Any Foundation Sanction Event that does not have an approved site and budget nine (9) months prior to the event start date will be cancelled for the year. (Usual start dates: Southeastern Rendezvous, first of April; Old Northwest Rendezvous, end of June; Midwest Rendezvous and Northeastern Rendezvous, middle of July; Eastern Rendezvous, end of September)” (Removed 4/10/2014)~~

In cases where no site or Booshway is available in a designated Foundation event region, a site located across regional boundary lines in an adjacent state may be used with Board of Directors approval.
