

Conference Call May 16, 1999

E. A. Bye, LHF Secretary

(I joined the conference call a few minutes late: Larry explained that all I missed was unanimous endorsement of the MOU by the LHF council.):

Council voted to accept MOU. I edit and e-mail to Glenn when edited. Deadline: middle of next week.

Trade fee modified as discussed at Woodbury ($35; traders responsible for their people); motion made by Glenn D. passed unanimously.

Motion by Glenn to change schedule of election; seconded by Rick. Carried unanimously.

More old business: Joe C. turned over to criminal section of Butler Co., PA. If we win we'll get money from Eastern.

Genn: Have funds for other rendezvous been transferred?

Rick: We're due over 9500 dollars; John M. is transferring to LHF this week. Update on SE: Paperwork is in; lost about 1500-2000 dollars. $4000 from SE transferred to LHF soon. Total to be transferred to LHF is about $13000.

Jeff: How are we doing on logo?

Rick: Artist has art work, and thinks it will work.

Glenn: Shape is powder horn now, not round.

Rick: We owe National money; it will be taken care of, and Jim will be informed.

Glenn: I contacted Dick Bennett indirectly; faxed him MOU so he knew about this call.

Several: How about Eric?

Eric: I'm here! I just can't talk on my phone while it's on speaker phone so I can type at the same time.

Rick: What do we do about Lizard's proposal?

Jeff: let it lie; don't stir it up.

Bill: Question: On voting for delegates, does booshway have ballots?

Rick: Should have ballots in booshway packet.

Glenn: They have to develop something on site for voting for delegates; the ballots in the packet are only for booshway election.

Bill: Bad news: booshway for 2000 MW had to bow out because he couldn't get the land.

Jeff: I'd like to get voting in place before I leave the rendezvous, but I don't have to be present for vote.

Rick: Maybe we should schedule a time for election so you can be there to make sure that things go right.

Rick: I'll do my best to have it scheduled on a day I'll be there.

Linda: Is Clarence running again?

No one knows...

Jeff C. can sit down with candidates, as he did at SE.

Any more new business? (Silence)

Glenn moved to adjourn; seconded by Rick.

Adios!
